

New Bio-Based Hand Cleansing Technology

Deb's unique new bio-based hand cleansers incorporate DEBASOL® a patented, synergistic blend of sunflower oil ester, natural scrubbing agents and non-ionic surfactants that combine to provide excellent skin cleansing without the need for harsh ingredients.

The Natural Power of Sunflower Oil

Sunflower oil esters are derived from sunflower seeds, a sustainable natural crop grown in many parts of the world. Deb's sunflower oil ester is not classified as a solvent yet has excellent solvency properties for use in hand cleansing. It can therefore be used as a replacement to petroleum and terpene based solvents, with the following benefits:

- Not toxic to humans
- Not ecotoxic
- Readily biodegradable
- Not classified as a VOC
- Non-flammable
- Obtained from a renewable source
- Kinder to the environment
- Milder on the skin
